Additional learning

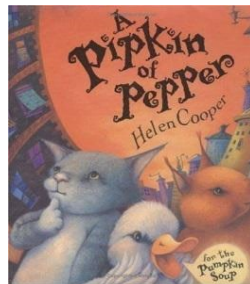

We will be walking up to Church on Tuesday morning so our class baby can be Baptized. If you would like to come along, please let the office know by lunchtime today. Thank you. We will also be having a special bonfire night treat on Friday afternoon.

Sharing a Love of Reading:

We always share the authors of the books that we read together in Reception. In sharing our love of reading with the children, we also love to share different stories which are written by the same author. Here are two additional stories by Helen Cooper that you can enjoy listening to with your children:

Understanding the World

On Thursday and Friday, we will be learning about Guy Fawkes – a famous figure from the past whose actions have influenced life today.

We will be introducing the children to people and events from the past and also the present day throughout the year and beginning to develop an understanding of the concept of time through history.

Phonics

This week's phonemes are:
ck e u r
We will also learn our first two 'tricky' words – to and the

Please keep practising your blending and segmenting using the parent information sheets provided and don't forget to cut up your flashcards and practise naming the sounds every day.
